Welcome

to the June issue of The Advertiser

Well here we are finally coming out of what has been the most surreal time any of us have ever experienced. Things are slowly returning to normal and businesses are reopening with multifarious and ever-changing restrictions in place.

Many businesses will take a long time to recover from the lost months of revenue and some, sadly, will simply not survive.

Having spoken to several local business people I can confirm that their businesses rely heavily on the summer trade, they accumulate enough funds during these months to sustain their business through the winter months. Without visitors to the area, there are simply not enough local residents to sustain and support the many restaurants and bars that we are lucky to have. Try to support them if you can. If you are not comfortable dining out at the moment, order a take away or buy a gift voucher.

I urge everyone to do whatever they can to support local businesses this year. It really is a "use it or lose it" situation.

Stay safe and here is to hoping that this month sees the back of what has been a truly challenging time.

HOUSE & HOME

GROUNDHOG DAY, GROUNDHOG DAY

As Punxsutawney Phil leaves his burrow, if he sees his shadow, it means the virus has gotten out of control again and it's 6 more weeks of lockdown. That's a lot of pressure for Phil the Groundhog, he better not mess it up!

Although, I suppose it's not really up to a rodent to decide these things. It takes, I can't believe I'm about to say this, it means, oh God, we have to rely on each other. We're stuffed.

I must admit, my family and I are taking a rather cautious approach so far. I keep looking at figures, trying to work out what it means and by the time I've done that, those figures are out of date or I've looked at the wrong data. Wait this is starting to look a little too sensible for my writing.

I'll be cautious until I've accidentally drank 18 beers and run through the streets with my shorts on my head kissing and hugging everyone! Okay, that feels better.

At the end of the day (my favourite totally overly-used British saying!), you have to do what is comfortable for you. If that's meeting lots of people to only a few, you have to know what's right. Personally, I'll be keeping my circles small. Anyway, I'll step down from my soapbox now.

It May Be of Interest

Like many of us, I've had plenty of time to read and have come across some interesting stuff on the net. It turns out the internet has many uses, not just for meme generation. Who knew?

So I came across an older doctor who was describing his particular dealings with the virus. I won't bore you with details, or even the facts, but the gist of what he was saying is that many people were presenting to hospital for other reasons, but when they checked their oxygen levels, found that they were quite low. They then ran a COVID-19 test and they were positive after showing no other symptoms.

Ultimately, his suggestion was that people could regularly check their own oxygen levels through a reasonably cheap device, called a Pulse Oximeter. The advice coming from government is if you find it difficult to breathe, go to the hospital, but his point was sometimes that is too late. You probably can get it done at the local chemist or medical centre too, but I like the idea of not sharing. Sharing is caring remember, and I don't care to share.

So this means you could self-monitor your oxygen levels and if it seems low, you can contact your medical centre to advise you further. This is not the be all and end all. Obviously this is not fool-proof, and I'm just the fool to test it.

I am not a doctor and this is not medical advice. Please don't sue me.

If you have any feedback for me, to dispute, argue, agree, support, harass or to pinch, flick me an email bradh_os@hotmail.com

CASTELLÓN DE BÉDAR

Luxury Suite / Suite de Lujo
Jewellery Classes / Tuition

Here at Castellon De Bedar we are celebrating our second Anniversary in Business.

WE are nestled high up in the white washed village of Bedar and we offer a luxury B&B Suite that is the entire top floor of our Casa.

The Cabrera Suite caters for two adults and it has all been lovingly renovated, maintaining a lot of the original features, yet we have sympathetically modernised other aspects that have truly enhanced the ambience and charm through out.

As soon as you walk through our gates of Castellón De Bedar, you immediately have the sense of peace and tranquility. You are our only guests and so this means your stay is completely tailor made to your own needs. The Suite offers a complete package for any Business couple, with a lounge set up for WiFi, full TV package, Bosh blue tooth system, should you need to work whilst you are here. For those of you that might come and want to relax and "lock the world out" you also have a beautiful high beamed bedroom, that has Air Conditioning, 1000 Cotten linen, and a King Sized Bed.....from the Bedroom and separate lounge you can then walk out onto your own private balcony....it is quite breath taking, the views of the village of Bedar itself, sweeping down in front of you. The Cabrera Sierra Mountains in front and Mojácar Pueblo and the blue sea beyond.

Our guests have literally sat for hours watching this stunning view.

Upon arrival, you will receive a complimentary bottle of Cava and home made biscuits made by Shane.....you have full access to our Spa hot tub, which is available to you at anytime of the year, and during your stay, you are our only guests and you can use it when you want. The Courtyard is also perfect at different times of the day, to sit and read, in the sun or in the shade.

We have a second balcony as you go into the house that you are also able to sit and relax should you wish. Breakfast is served to our special guests in the Mirador room, this is an outside space that is completely enclosed in the winter by glass curtains, these can be removed depending on the weather. This means that you have outside views all year round. The breakfasts are always tailored to your specifications and requests.

You can come and stay with us and join one of our jewellery making classes too, or just come for a magical break, for you, a loved one, for an Anniversary, or a Birthday, it is a perfect, special place indeed for any occasion.

We have a vast and comprehensive honesty Bar.... for a little night cap..... Nothing is too much trouble and our aim is always to ensure you have a wonderful stay with us.

In the village of Bedar we have three Spanish Restaurants and another Restaurant just 5 kilometres away, which we are more than happy to arrange table bookings for any. There is a bank, farmacia, two super markets, a Gym and Yoga classes, pottery classes and a local Estate Agents, Olive Properties...should you need anything else. There are several walks around the local area, plus bike tours.

Why not come and experience something truly unique that we know you will treasure for a long time.

FUNERALS IN SPAIN

... What you need to know

WHILE thinking about our own mortality is not pleasant, when living in a foreign country, it is always better to have something in place to take away the stress at such a sad and emotional time for your loved ones.

With no funeral plans in place, under Spanish law the Guardia Civil must be called and a doctor contacted. The doctor will issue a temporary certificate, after which either the doctor or the Guardia Civil will contact a local funeral director to attend to the deceased. The Spanish funeral director will ask for a release form to be signed and in some cases the form is part of a legally binding contract. It usually does not disclose prices until after all the funeral arrangements have been made.

Living in a foreign country is not easy, especially when having to go through all the red tape we barely know anything about. I have found this to be the case more so when people are grieving.

The earlier you plan for such eventualities the better for you in terms of stress, emotion, affordability and peace of mind. It is extremely important to have provisions in place, in the event of a death when living in a foreign country.

When taking a pre-paid plan with Golden Leaves International, we take all the process, burden and decision making off your shoulders. At such a sad time it allows you to concentrate on the things that are most important to you and your family.

Everybody who takes a pre-paid plan, usually does so for personal reasons and circumstances. Over the years, I have found my clients commenting on the same common benefits which are:

- Taking the weight off their shoulders with a 24-hour emergency helpline. Ensuring that one call takes care of everything.

- Plenty of time to get family and friends over, possibly from overseas.
- Having Funeral Cover in both UK and Spain
- Being able to speak their own language
- No further cost to them or their family - due to the funeral cover being a set price and being pre-paid.

For further information on the Funeral Plans please call Haylee on Tel: 950 049 431 Mob: 670 311 233, or visit her in the Turre office for advice or a chat.

Environmental Issues

To suck or not to suck? That is the question!

SOME of us like to use one, some of us need one and let's face it - a Mojito full of chopped mint and smashed ice is simply not drinkable without one. I am of course talking about straws.

This week I posted a theoretical question on the Coastal Cleaners Andalucia Facebook page to ask how people would feel about a 10 cent surcharge for a straw. With customers being given the choice about whether they wanted one in the first place and the option to keep using the first one rather than getting another with each drink. After all, the 2015 introduction of the 5 pence carrier bag charge in the UK saw the number of customers taking a bag drop by 85%. With the average adult use dropping from 140 to a much lower 25 new bags a year according to figures quoted by the Guardian in 2018.

The results of the straw poll showed that most of us would be happy for the charge to exist. Many said they did not want a straw at all and would simply decline, others said it would encourage them to keep the first straw or to purchase a personal reusable one to take with them (alternatives include bamboo, metal and pasta and some are foldable to be compact and pocket friendly). Importantly, no one seemed outraged at the suggestion which indicates that all of us are becoming more aware of the issue of single use plastic and waste.

Some comments expressed annoyance that anyone should need a straw at all (Those whom have suffered a stroke, have Parkinsons or MS make up part of society that do often genuinely NEED one to drink), and I suspect we have all been presented with an unwanted or totally unnecessary straw at some point.

Decorating drinks with a straw can somehow make them seem more luxurious or evoke the holiday mood for some people, in these circumstances a paper one would have the same effect but unless they are plastic lined they are not effective for long.

As a waitress I have often seen 2 being put into a Sangria, used briefly to stir the drink (a spoon does the same job) only to be removed immediately and placed on the table by the customer, with another two new ones going automatically into their next fresh glass by the server and no one seeming to bat an eyelid. You may ask does it really matter? In the scheme of things a slender plastic straw can seem fairly innocuous but when scaled up by millions of people a day at thousands of bars, restaurants, fastfood venues and beyond the numbers become massive.

A staggering 500 million A DAY are used in the US alone with many of them ending up in the oceans.

Plastic straws are among the top 10 most commonly found items by beach cleaners worldwide, and every one, unless incinerated, still exists somewhere. So yes, in short it does matter.

2021 holds more widespread hope with The European parliament taking steps to address single use plastics, planning bans for some and enforcing the use of alternatives where they exist. However we don't have to wait, we can all do our bit to stop the problem at source if we make it clear we don't want a straw when we order. In Spanish the phrase to use is "Sin Pajita, gracias" = "Without a straw, Thanks". For the sake of our planet and oceans, give it a go, become part of the solution and show businesses that you'd prefer a world with less plastic.

Gastronomy & Cooking - by Pig & Fig

PEACH AND KIWI SALSA

As we continue through this year, still in lockdown but with new measures allowing us more freedom, I have to say I am really appreciating the simple things in life .. a stroll with my family, a coffee with a friend, the views of the Mediterranean .. Life is more challenging and for me, during this time, I have found a great deal of pleasure in cooking and challenging myself with new recipes and dishes.

June is a fantastic month for delicious flavoursome soft fruits including peaches, nectarines and cherries to name but a few. I tasted my first peach this week and I wasn't disappointed. I used it to make a really fresh and vibrant salsa to go with some smoky chipotle chicken. ...The salsa was so incredibly simple to make, it was delicious with the chicken but could work equally as well with grilled white fish or simply grilled chicken breast on the BBQ, served with flatbread or sweet potato fries.

RECIPE :

- 1 peach - stoned and diced
- 1 kiwi - peeled and diced
- 1 plum tomato - roughly chopped
- ½ red chilli
- ½ small sweet onion
- Lemon juice
- Good olive oil
- Fresh mint and coriander roughly chopped

METHOD :

Add the chopped fruits and tomato into a bowl. Finley slice the chilli (add more if you like it hotter), finely chop the sweet onion and mix into the fruits. Stir through and season with salt and pepper, add a splash of good olive oil and a squeeze of lemon.

Finish off with some freshly chopped herbs. Chill until required (bring out of the fridge 10 minutes before serving)

Enjoy!

Just a quick one! Our daily/weekly markets are now starting to open, albeit with limited capacity and stalls.

I love a salad this time of year whether it be for lunch or dinner, so why not grab a few different ingredients and experiment with some new flavour combinations. For example, add pulses, roast vegetables with spices topped with halloumi and grilled on the BBQ.... or a dollop of pesto with crème fraiche ...

Go crazy !

Beautiful you

I HAVE believed for a long time now that our loved ones in spirit watch over us and try to guide us to make the best decisions and smooth our way for us. I get to see proof of this every single day in my work, and nothing gives me more happiness than to see that light come back on in a person's face when they feel they realise their loved ones are still there.

Sometimes the message is as simple as, clean the inside of your windscreen, not just the outside, you are breathing that dust! and sometimes more serious, like you need to go to the doctor about your tummy, but last night I had a message that surprised even me!

I have a good friend in the UK, and I usually do some readings for her and a few friends when I go back there. This was her message to me.

Hi honey, how you doing? Hope you are keeping well. Had to tell you this.....

You did a reading for a friend of mine (Sal) about 3 years ago, you told her if she ever saw a little boy called Jake she had to keep hold of him and not let him go, he would have piercing blue eyes and dark hair. It scared us to death lol.

Anyway it came true yesterday, Sal was walking and a little boy ran out from Collies Lane in Willaston and ran out on Crewe Road, no one around except one woman, Sal asked if he was with her she said no. Sal ran after him and long story very short he had gone out of a gate his grandad showed him and ran off. It took Sal a while to find him.....his name was....Archie.....but he likes to be known as Jake!!!!!!!!!!!! You are truly amazing xxxxx

How cool indeed!!!

He was only 5.....his grandad had shown him a gate and he thought his grandad and brother had gone out of it so ran through it.

When Sal asked his name....he just said he likes to be called Jake!' Xxx

So this was very interesting to me, as this wasn't a warning to anyone Sal knew, just a premonition for her which has come true. Would the boy, Jake, have been run over, or even worse abducted? He was a total stranger to her, and it could be dismissed as just luck that she was in the right place at that time to help him, but if it was just chance how do we explain the fact that someone in spirit knew that he would be in danger, and that Sal would be able to help him and tell her 3 years before it happened? Even the name, Jake, is not a common name, so not a guess, so he definitely has someone looking after him. Has Jake an important future ahead of him to be guarded and protected so well. ?

That my friends, is a question I have no answer to.

When we cannot dismiss something with logic, we have to just simply accept it, and in this case, thank the angels who are protecting that little boy.

I hope this has warmed your hearts as much as it has warmed my soul.

Welcome to your monthly hair dot com

By Beth Underhill

EACH month I am looking forward to sharing my knowledge of hair care with you. As a Vocational Trainer and Assessor for the examiners Scotvec and a salon owner for over 30 years, my passion is the science of hair and how to respect it using salon chemicals.

I will be giving you some useful tips and advice on how you can protect and care for your hair.

BAD HAIR DAY?

Are you using the right shampoo for your hair type?

Over the years shampoos have progressed dramatically, gone are the days when we had scum around the bath after using soap for our body and hair. We now have a range of sophisticated shampoos to choose from, smelling and looking gorgeous with properties that promise to deliver healthy, lush looking hair, but are you using the right shampoo for your hair type?

However, of the things we should be asking ourselves is "do I buy the shampoo for my scalp disorder or to my hair?" My advice would be to buy the shampoo that will correct your scalp condition before your hair condition, if you are in any doubt always consult your stylist.

THE 2-IN-1 SHAMPOOS This type of shampoo offers both cleansing and conditioning in one bottle. Silicones and/or conditioning oils are usually formulated and added to provide smoothness, softness, and shine to dried hair. They are slightly more conditioning than the other mild shampoos to the point that a conditioner is not needed. These are practical and work fine for hair that needs a gentle cleaning and a decent amount of conditioning. However there are limitations to its usage and not everybody will benefit from this type of shampoo as a build up of silicone can become heavy on the hair. Chemically treated hair will need an extra conditioner.

DRY SHAMPOO Dry shampoo spray contains four powders that absorb oil and sweat from the scalp, two powders that prevent the formula from settling and packing into the bottom of the products canister or tub, three types of fragrance, a chemical that neutralizes odours, alcohol to keep the formula liquid, and OFPMA. Most of those materials are widely available, but addition of OFPMA makes the product unique because it enables the powders to fall out of the users hair after spraying and thus remove oil and sebum without water, instead of clumping into strands and causing further build up.

MEDICATED SHAMPOO Medicated shampoos are designed to deliver some other benefit to the scalp besides cleansing. The most common medicated shampoos are aimed at relieving scalp itch and / or scaling. They contain active agents such as, tar derivatives, salicylic acid, sulfur, selenium sulphide, polyvinylpyrrolidone-iodine complex, chlorinated phenols or zinc pyrithione. Medicated shampoos have several functions: to remove sebum efficiently, to remove scalp scale, to decrease scalp scale production, and to act as an antibacterial / antifungal.

Of the medicated shampoo categories, are also those designed for thinning hair. Some will contain minoxidil to prevent further hair loss. Others will contain natural essential oils that help stimulate blood flow in the scalp. They are often designed to create more volume and give more body to thin hair.

SWIMMER'S SHAMPOO These shampoos are specifically formulated to remove pool chlorine and copper from the hair. They contain a chelating agent which can trap the copper ions, and often contain ascorbic acid which will break the chlorine interactions with the hair.

BLUE, PURPLE OR SILVER SHAMPOO For those that are struggling with unwanted orange tones. One to two applications should subtly tone the hair, extending the life of those pricey highlights, however, it's best to use such shampoos no more than once a week, as excessive use can not only dry the hair but cause an overload of purple or blue pigment within the hair, leaving the intended colour looking drab.

FINAL WORDS

Once you've identified what your hair needs, you can make the appropriate choice in terms of shampoo type. This will minimize the chances of disappointment with your newly purchased product and your hair will surely thank you for using the right shampoo.

The Dames in Spain - Mojacar

As many of you know the Dames in Spain was first launched in 1985 by a small group of British ladies to promote friendship and help in their chosen country of retirement. Since this first meeting the Dames have met every year promoting friendship and help not only to each other but to various charities that have over the years been set up locally.

The coronavirus COVID-19 pandemic will not defeat us and we did manage a couple of meetings at the beginning of our 2019/2020 season. Unfortunately like everyone else we had to close but the work of the Dames has still been going on in the background.

When your committee heard how the Red Cross were struggling for donations a decision was made via our Dames in Spain Whatsapp to donate 300€ to the cause.

Hopefully our Christmas Bazaar will still take place, the room and band are booked, and the committee are working for this to be one of the best. We are already thinking Christmas items.

So please we need your support and hopefully we will meet up again in September when we will have our AGM and come refreshed with new ideas thought up over the 'lockdown' period.

Fluff

ROSIE & FLUFF were rescued from the middle of the road near one of the popular restaurants on Mojacar Playa when they were just a few weeks old. They have a very close bond, so ideally we would like to home them together. Although they enjoy home comforts, they would also like access to the outside world as they have been used to this in their foster home. For more information about these lovely girls who are fully vaccinated and have been spayed, please email: cats@paws-patas.org
